"TURNING THE PAGE: WHAT'S NEXT FOR OUR LOCAL NEWS"

Join us on Tuesday, November 10, at 4:00 p.m. at the Mancos Public Library for a conversation with Chris Ballantine, Publisher and CEO of Ballantine Communications, Inc., and Managing Editor Shane Benjamin. Chris and Shane will share their perspectives on the evolving state of local journalism and their vision for the The Journal and its sister publications. Most importantly, Chris and Shane want to hear from you. Bring your questions, ideas, and feedback on what matters to you in your local news coverage.
